P. Kevin Castel
United States District Judge

United States v. Andrew Brown, 20 Cr. 470 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

I respectfully write to request that the Court extend Mr. Brown's surrender date in the above-captioned case by approximately one month. On January 17, 2024, this Court sentenced Mr. Brown, in relevant part, to a term of imprisonment of 18 months, and set a surrender date of May 7, 2024. However, the Bureau of Prisons has not yet designated Mr. Brown to the facility where he will serve his sentence. I respectfully ask that the Court adjourn Mr. Brown's sentencing date until approximately June 7, 2024 to allow more time for the Bureau of Prisons to provide his designation.

Counsel for Mr. Brown who is handling his appeal in this case – the law firm Morvillo Abramowitz – has conferred with the Government about this request, and the Government consents on the basis that Mr. Brown has not yet received his designation. It is also my understanding that Mr. Brown's appellate counsel plans shortly to file a motion in the Second Circuit for bail pending appeal, and that an extension of Mr. Brown's surrender date would provide the appellate court with time to decide that motion prior to Mr. Brown's surrender.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Max Nicholas
